CODE OF CONDUCT

“The Riccarton Way”

*The philosophy that underpins the way we think, act and feel about ourselves, others at the school, and those in our local and international community. It supports our vision for our students through emphasis on the key values of commitment, honesty, respect and excellence.

Below is an overview of the rules that all international students agree to abide by while enrolled at Riccarton High School. Most are applied to the general school and some are for the specific safety of international students, as attested to in the Code of Practice. For full copies of the Riccarton High School Code of Conduct, list of classroom expectations, and/or homestay procedures and guidelines, contact international@riccarton.school.nz

1. Students must abide by the laws of New Zealand at all times

With particular reference to laws regarding motor vehicles, road rules, cycle helmets, sexual consent, unsupervised minors, alcohol and drugs. If in doubt, contact the International Department.

2. Arrive on time, attend all classes and stay on school grounds unless prior given permission to leave

New Zealand Immigration requires 100% attendance with justification for any absences. A doctor's certificate is required for any absences longer than three days. If in doubt, always ask the International Department.

3. Behave in a way that ensures classrooms are learning-focused environments for everyone

Students will observe the classroom behaviour rules displayed in classrooms throughout the school. These rules can be requested from the International Department

4. Arrive to school neatly dressed with the correct uniform and footwear

All students wear school uniform. This encourages a sense of identity, provides a common standard of grooming on which to build positive attitudes, and pride in the school. The school does not permit visible body piercings or tattoos. Females are not to wear clearly visible make-up, males must be clean-shaven and all students' hair colour is to be suitably natural. Find more details about uniform and grooming on the school website.

<https://www.riccarton.school.nz/uniform/>, or ask the International Department.

5. Respect our school environment and keep New Zealand beautiful

A good environment encourages pride in our behaviour, lifting our expectations of ourselves and others. We all have the right to be in a pleasant, clean, tidy place. Riccarton High School prohibits chewing gum, spitting, littering and any kind of vandalism. This conduct should also be applied outside school grounds at all times.

6. Not possess or use tobacco, alcohol, drugs or dangerous items (matches, lighters, knives or other weapons/substances) on school or homestay property

Healthy living demands that we are not under the influence of any substances that endanger our health or the health of others. For this reason, apart from medication prescribed by a doctor, the school maintains a “drug free” environment, which extends to our homestay accommodation

7. Commit to the appropriate use of digital technologies and internet

Digital technologies involve the use of computers, cell phones, tablets, calculators, translators and recording devices. Students are responsible for any such items that they bring to school. All students are required to sign the Acceptable Use Agreement which lists the terms and conditions of computer and internet use at Riccarton at the time of enrolment confirmation. Contact the International Department if further clarification is required

8. Always treat other people with courtesy and respect

All students and staff play a role in setting the “tone” of the school. This determines whether everyone enjoys their time here. The school endeavours to ensure the emotional well-being of its community and we insist on good treatment of everyone. It is never OK to use offensive language, threaten or abuse others, discriminate, steal, harass or behave in any way that detracts from others' well-being or sense of safety

9. Present a valid New Zealand drivers licence to the International Department for approval before operating any motor vehicle

Homestays and the school must know in advance if students are intending to drive or own a vehicle in New Zealand. International driver licences are not sufficient. The International Department can help students enrol in driving lessons and/or licence testing where needed.

10. Make sure the school and/or homestay know where you are at all times

Communication is essential - not only for students' safety, but also for maintaining trusting relationships between students, school and homestay. Students are to communicate any plans in advance with the school and homestay, respect curfews, and be contactable by phone when not at school or home. Contact the Riccarton High School Homestay Coordinator for more clarification around the homestay allocation process and guidelines to living in a school homestay. Contact email by@riccarton.school.nz

Initialed by: _____ (parent) _____ (student)

11. Obtain parental and school permission for overnight trips outside Christchurch

The international Department needs written permission from parents if students travel outside Christchurch. Accommodation arrangements must be deemed safe and appropriate by the International Department and contact phone numbers must be supplied. Homestays and school should be notified about non-school, trips at least 10 days in advance of travel.

12. Reside in accommodation that meets Riccarton High Schools requirements as outlined in the Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students

In order to be enrolled as an international student at Riccarton High School, students' accommodation must meet minimum Code requirements. International students at Riccarton High School must live in a homestay, or a residence pre-approved by the Homestay Coordinator (Designated Caregiver). Students are not to change accommodation arrangements without consulting with the Homestay Co-ordinator. Contact email by@riccarton.school.nz

Disciplinary Policy (Schedule Two)

1. The following is the School's current disciplinary policy for dealing with breaches of the Agreement. This is not intended to restrict the School's general power of discipline and this policy may be changed from time to time at the discretion of the School.

Overview

2. Except in serious situations where immediate termination of the Agreement is necessary, or where the breach does not warrant any formal response other than a warning, the School will endeavour, where appropriate, to follow a two-stage disciplinary process.
3. In Stage One, the School will investigate and determine the facts, and will reach a conclusion on what happened and whether it amounts to a breach of the Agreement.
4. In Stage Two, if the School has determined that a breach has occurred, the School will consider the appropriate response to that breach, up to and including termination of the Agreement.
5. The Student will have an opportunity to provide a response to the alleged breach that the School is investigating (the Allegation) and any proposed disciplinary action that the School is considering taking (the Proposed Action).
6. This policy does not limit the School's power to take appropriate disciplinary action urgently and without following this process if this is necessary having regard to the seriousness of the breach.
7. This policy also does not limit the School's power to suspend the student for the duration of the disciplinary process where suspension is considered necessary for the safety or education of any person.

General Policy

8. When the School is conducting a disciplinary process involving the Student it will endeavour to provide the Student with the following:
 - (a) a written summary of the Allegation or the Proposed Action;
 - (b) an opportunity to respond to the Allegation or the Proposed Action, either in person or in writing or both, at the choice of the Student;
 - (c) an opportunity to consider the Allegation or the Proposed Action for a reasonable period of time (having regard to the seriousness of the Allegation or the Proposed Action) before giving a response;

Disciplinary Procedure

Stage One: Incident Investigation

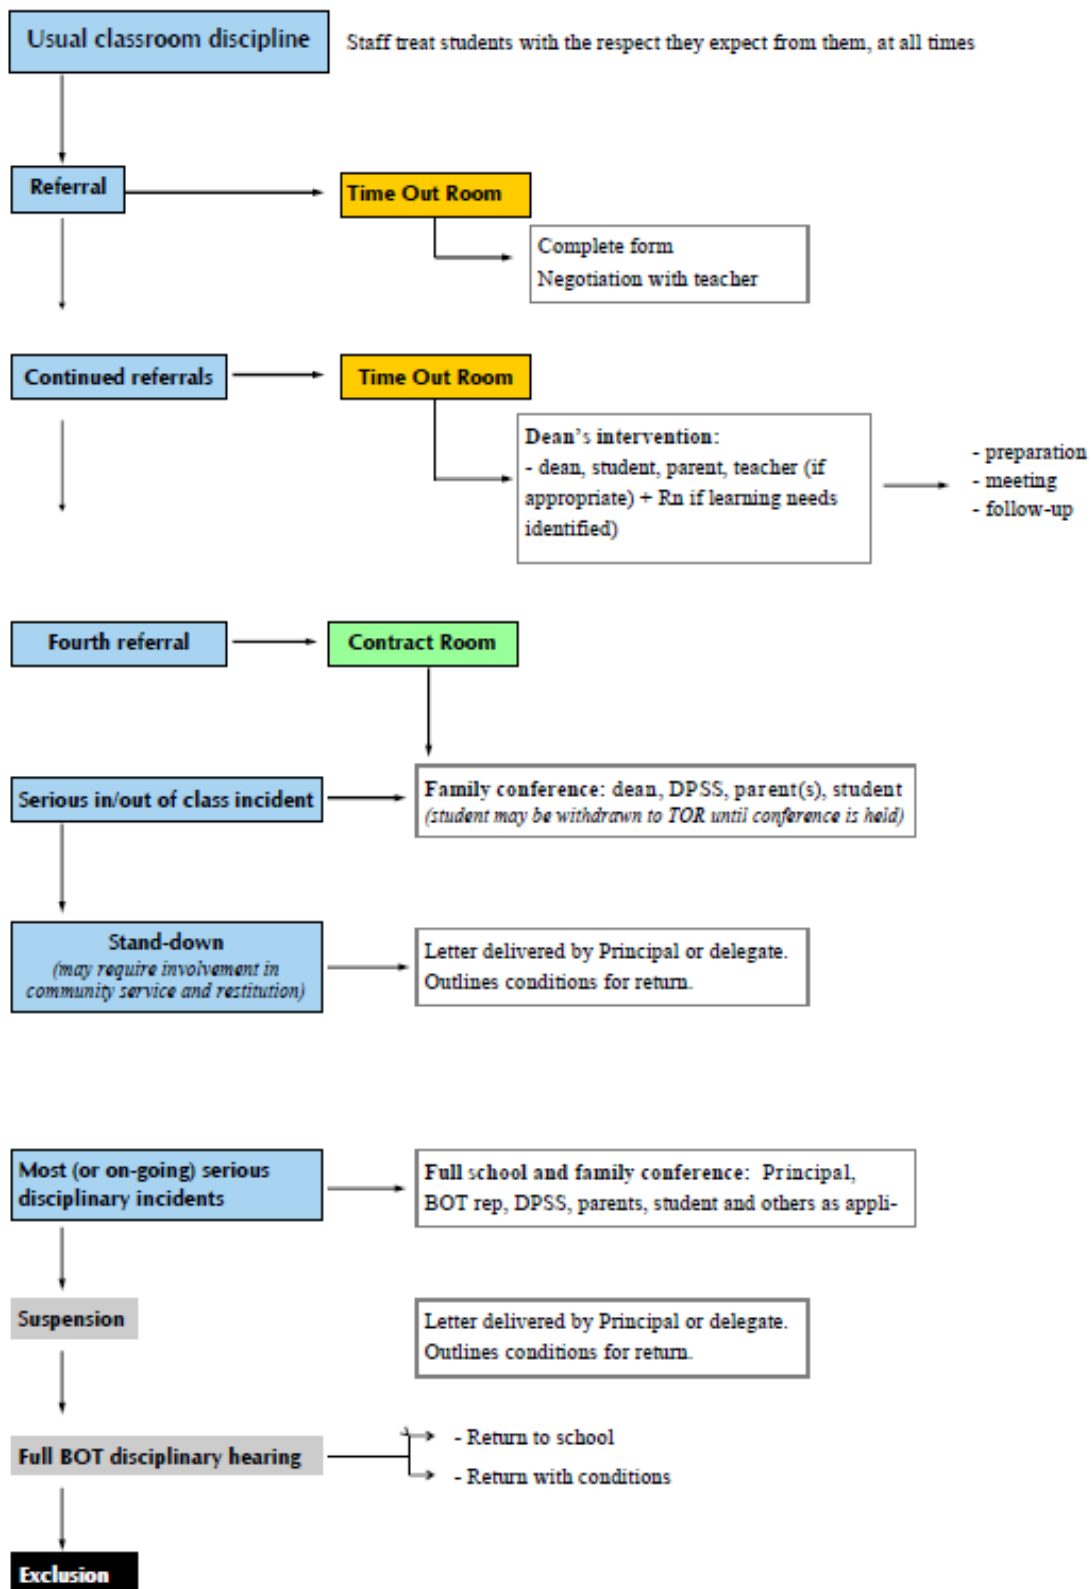

9. When the School learns of any incident or any other thing that may be a breach of the Agreement or might otherwise warrant a disciplinary response, the School will notify the Student of the Allegation and will provide the Student with an opportunity to give a response.
10. Where appropriate, having regard to the seriousness of the Allegation, the Student will have the opportunity to respond either in person or in writing or both, at the choice of the Student. The School will receive this response and give it genuine consideration before making a decision about the Allegation.
11. When the School makes a decision about the Allegation it will advise the Student and parent, in writing if possible, about its conclusion as to what happened and whether it amounts to a breach of the Agreement.

Stage Two: Outcome Discussion

12. If the School determines that a breach of the Agreement has occurred, it will advise the Student and parent of the possible disciplinary actions that it will consider taking in response to the breach and will provide the Student and parents with an opportunity to give a response.
13. Where appropriate, having regard to the seriousness of the breach, the Student and parent will have the opportunity to respond either in person or in writing or both, at the choice of the Student. The School will receive this response and give it genuine consideration before making a decision about the disciplinary action to be taken.
14. When the School makes a decision about the disciplinary action that it will take in response to the breach it will advise the Student and parents of its decision, in writing if possible. The disciplinary action will not take effect, and no actions will be taken to put it into place, until the Student and parents have been advised of the decision.
